FOR YOUR INFORMATION

ON CAMPUS, the twice-weekly events bulletin produced on the Loyola campus by the Information Office and the Dean of Students Office will not return this fall due to budget and personnel cutbacks.

The weekly events pages of THE THURSDAY REPORT, however, will still be available to all members of the university community for listings of events and notices, and for free classified advertising.

A special pre-term issue of TTR will be published on August 23, and the newspaper will resume its regular weekly publishing schedule on September 6.

Submissions to THE THURSDAY REPORT should be sent to the Information Office (Loyola: AD-105, ext. 689; SGW: BC-213, 879-8497) no later than Monday noon for Thursday publication.
